Taylor County Workshop, Inc. Approved For Rural Business Enterprise Grant

Morgantown, WV – June 29, 2006: State Director Robert M. Steptoe, III, today announced that Rural Development approved a Rural Business Enterprise Grant of $95,550 for Taylor County Workshop, Inc., Taylor County, WV.

Rural Development funds will be used to purchase machinery and equipment necessary to establish a “Sediment and Erosion Control Product/Mulch and Compost” production line.

Steptoe remarked, “This project is expected to create 20 jobs and save 10 jobs. He added, “The expansion will allow Taylor County Workshop to provide job training opportunities for low-income and/or disabled adults.”

Rural Development serves as the lead Federal entity for rural development needs and administers program assistance through its rural housing programs, rural business programs, and rural utilities programs. The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual’s income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.)
